s naturally provoked at his son tive little volume his wishes a woman ectionable in many ways. however, overbalance the tween the ages of six and eight, by which records but for the terse, vivid accounts he unconsciously makes the people about of the individual games. tter and happier, are related in The convenient and pretty "Biographi re would like to find in a yo ngster are grien the magazines.

Western gambling that have appeared in recent years. It is a book that all lovers for many years in THE SUN has been of Stevenson will enjoy. made by Mr. David A. Curtis under the title "Old Man Greenhut and His Friends" Duffield and Company). The quaint gathered together in permanent

A successful play by Mr. W. Somerset Maugham has been twisted into the by Mr. David Grav and is published as 'Smith" by Duffield and Company. The and the excuse for most of them is that the text of the play will hardly bear publication.

Books for Youth.

Indian fights interesting; to be sure they much interest to the general public. are the same Indians of the Ohio Valley hat they told of. In "The Scouts of the Valley" (Appletons), the fifth or sixth of a series that deserves to be popular. he carries his heroes through further hairbreadth escapes and gallant deeds. That there is remarkable similarity in the adventures of the several volumes is no Ph. D. Appletons mistake; youth cannot get enough of what it likes. In this case we are led through nan M. D. the Wyoming massacres and the destruction of the Indian towns. Mr. Altsheler is penurious about his villains; he is bound to make the same one do over and over again till he winds up his series. In "The Quest of the Four" (Appletons)

Mr. Altsheler jumps from the Revolution nto the Mexican War. His Indians are now the Comanches of the plains, and the youthful hero and his friends have to ght not only them but our old friends Lane Company. he Mexican greasers as well. The adentures are more melodramatic and less | Lane Company bable than in his dark and bloody ground tales, but they certainly are not lacking in excitement.

| M. D. (Dana Estes and Company, Boston.) |
| The Great Illusion." Norman Angell. (G. P.

Considering that in "Old Ryerson" Putnam's Sons.
Appletons) Mr. Walter Camp supplies "The Road." two thrilling boat races and three ball games, one a comic one in which the faculty plays the Phi Beta Kappa, he may be pardoned for dropping the account of the development of his hero, with which the takes some pains at the start. According to the development of the development of the development of the company of the property of the columbia University Press: games, one a comic one in which the takes some pains at the start. Accounts of college sports by Mr. Camp are

It is a slow but thoughtful and amiable ttle boy that Mr. Stewart Edward White ntroduces us to in "The Adventures of Bobby Orde" (Doubleday, Page and Comhimself and is persistent. With the aid sympathizing elders he learns how to ot and how to run a printing press, nd the young readers of his story may earn to do the same in so far as book inruction will help them. His wooing of Martin Sabine. (Little, Brown and Company ne little girl was skilful and effective. was unlike the conduct of any ten-year- pers. d we have known. We do not like the d when all the adventures have been ural incidents that may happen to P. Putnam's Sons.
Very hoy, the murder and the logical detions of the small boy grate rather nam's seordantly. Bobby is an interesting simile tale in simple words is told sephine Scribner Gates in "Tommy Schuette. (The Lakeside Company, Manitowood, Schuette, and Little Girl Blue" Wis.) and Little Girl Blue" giston Mifflin Company). We regret author reverts to the repe practice of dealing large doses tons.) zing to very little story. Four demeanants are here punished by being allowed to have their way unchecked.

Helen Grant series Amanda M. adds a new volume in "Helen - Harvest Year" (Lothrop, Lee & too. This volume describes eriences of Helen on the voyage This is the ninth and final f the series.

Votee.

about the voice and its cultivaland is preparing to sing in "grand (Appletons.) "Voice and Its Natural De-(Macmillans) Herbert Jen-* has attempted to make an appeal pa g. His book is not a treatise on "Within the Sliver Moon." of singing, but an exposition of dittle Brown and Company.) entary principles underlying the of tone in all its branches. singers and teachers of singing wiggin and Nora Archibald Smith. (Doubleday, and of special import. Perhaps the aluable are those which deal with "Land of Play." Sara Tawney Lefferts. (Cupples and Leon Company. New York.)

"The City of the Soul." Lord Affred Douglas.

"Some of us really desire to we such things and therefore we ought grateful to Mr. Jennings for telling Those of us who desire to be tenors

"The City of the Soul." Lord Affred Douglas.

"The First Book of the Kings" (The Smaller Cambridge, Bible for Schools, Administration of the list of his occupations, for he is now aide de camp in the Irish vice-regal court, and is authority on details of social eti-fletted by T. H. Hennessy, M. A. dean and is authority on details of social eti-fletted by T. H. Hennessy, M. A. dean and is authority on details of social eti-fletted by T. H. Hennessy, M. A. dean and is authority on details of social eti-fletted by T. H. Hennessy, M. A. dean and is authority on details of social eti-fletted by H. W. Fulford, M. A. fellow of Clare College, Cambridge, Cambridge, The Smaller Cambridge, The Single Bible for Schools, The Smaller Cambridge, The Smaller Cambridge, The Smaller Cambridge, The Single Bible for Schools, The Smaller Cambridge, The Smaller

Archibald Marshall's "The or sopranos, without knowing whether Son" (Dodd, Mead and Company), nature intended us to be or not, do not stocratic squire is kind at heart, have to read this interesting and sugges-

Other Books.

A historian for "Football" has been tions, there is a reconciliation and found in Mr. Parke H. Davis, who deals self-respect. Many with it only as the American intercollegiate ple appear in the tale, a devoted game (Charles Scribner's Sons). He has critess, a pair of mischievous twin some pleasant chapters on the antiquarian and others whom the reader will like. side and on the game as played in English ath just out of college finds himself schools and universities, but settles down d to take charge of his father's to business soon with the history of football business in "The Boss of Wind in American colleges. For the remote past by A. M. Chisholm (Doubleday, the seventies and eighties, he contents him-He discovers that self with grouping the records by decades. s learning the business he must and he surveys the succeeding decades mair competition and a number generally in the same manner. In Part II. hists who wish to get his property. of his volume he gives complete accounts in his struggle with the aid of of all the games between selected oppofriends and of the control he ac- nents, Army and Navy, Harvard and Yale ver the men who are working for Yale and Princeton, Princeton and Dart-All manner of vile tricks are tried mouth, Cornell and Pennsylvania, Wisvent his logs from reaching a consin and Minnesota, Michigan and but all are foiled. He wins a Pennsylvania, and so on, and also eigh girl besides. The materials are not famous games in which other colleges plarly original nor is the manner played. At the end are the results of lling, but the story is readable and the meetings of the Football Association. It is a book that will be invaluable to all Various adventures of an angel boy, be- interested in football, not merely for the

by Ethel Train (Charles Scribner's cal" edition of the works of Robert Louis They are child stories for the Stevenson published by Charles Scribner's delectation of their elders and are all Sons is completed appropriately by a sentimental. It is pretty sentiment. "Life of Robert Louis Stevenson," written wever, and these efforts to see what by Mr. Graham Balfour. That this would like to find in a yo ngster are "Life" should be in substance a eulogy is fully as interesting as the exaggerated natural; indeed anything else under the Company.) ounts of their spirit of mischief and circumstances would have hardly been in the humor of their blunders, which now good taste; but Mr. Balfour has had the Bruce. advantage of having at his command all selection of the entertaining stories that has been published about Stevenson

A charming book that should interest all New Yorkers now that the motor car s. has opened up Long Island to them is Mr. humor, that was so much appreciated William Wallace Tooker's "The Indian as these tales appeared serially, will be Piace Names of Long Island and Islands and Bacon, Boston,) enjoyed fully as much now that they Adjacent" (G. P. Putnam's Sons), and the "The Western Gate." Patrick H. W. Ross islands adjacent include Staten Island. The names are arranged alphabetically. the best arrangement for reference and many other purposes, though a geographirelized" form that seems to be popular | cal arrangement would have been attractive too. It is by no means only an etymological list. The author has weighed best that can be said of these books is that | carefully the spelling and the meaning of they are a shade better than a libretto, each name, but he has joined to each a mass of historical, legendary and antiquarian information about the place that makes each article entertaining. It is a conscientious and scientific piece of work. We could wish that the pleasant "prelim-A steady output of boys' books has inary remarks" had been much longer.

not extinguished Mr. Joseph A. Altsheler's The title "Eight Lands in Eight Weeks" gift of describing nature. In his first (Broadway Publishing Company) de-novels he conveyed the out of door feeling scribes sufficiently how Europe was seen his readers, and now when he is busied by Marcia Penfield Snyder. It contains Sons.) with Indian adventures and fights the the letters written home during the trip. mpressions of the woods and the rivers, without much pruning. The book must be the nights and the storms are still a convenience for the author in conveying CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS. wid. He has inherited the art of the her impressions to her friends, but it canvellow covered romances in making the not convey much information or be of Books Received.

"The Greek Commonwealth." Alfred E. Zim-

"Reminiscences of General Basil W. Duke, S. A." (Doubleday, Page and Company.) "Aerial Navigation." Albert Francis Zahm,

"Ploneer Irish of Onondaga." Theresa Ban-nn M. D. (G. P. Putnam's Sons.) "Genius and Other Essays." Edmund Clarence

Stedman. (Moffat, Yard and Company.)
"The lowa." William Harvey Miner. (The Torch Press, Cedar Rapids, lowa.)
"The Speil of Holland." Burton E. Stevenson.

Page and Company, Boston Art of the Vienna Galleries." David C.

"Reason and Sentiment," Dr. Paul Dubols.

unk and Wagnalls Company braham Lincoln." Fliot Norton. (Moffat. Yard and Company.)
"Business." Charles Edward Russell. (John

"Captain Cartwright and His Labrador Jour-

"The Road." Frank Savile. (Little, Brown and

"Lee's Invasion of Northwest Virginia." (Gran-Lemcke and Buechner.)

"A Ship of Solace." Eleanor Mordaunt. (Stur-

always enjoyable; this book is made up almost entirely of these and suffers in consequence as a story.

It is a slow but thoughtful and amiable "Joey the Dreamer." Henry Oyen. (Doubleday. Page and Company.) "Victor Olinec's Discipl ne." Hamlin Garland.

"Padre Ignacio." Owen Wister. (Harpers.)
"Rose of Old Harpeth." Maria Thompson Daviess. (The Bobbs Merrill Company, Indian-

"The Iron Woman." Margaret Deland. (Har "The Forbidden Way." George Gibbs. (Appietons. "The Lotus Lantern." Mary Imlay Taylor and "The Nine Tenths." James Oppenheim. (Har-

"The Coil of Carne." John Ozenham. (John Lane Company.)
"Love in a Little Town." J. E. Buckrose. (G. edition. "Vagabond City." Winifred Boggs. (G. P. Put-

"Awakening." Maud Diver. (John Lane Company.)

"Cicely." Sara Beaumont Kennedy. (Doublethe very young another very day. Page and Company.)
tale in simple words is told "Athonia, or the Original 409." H. George

> "Bartley, Freshman Pitcher." William Heyliger. (Appletons.)
> "For Vardiey." Ralph Henry Barbour. (Apple-

(Harpers.)
"The Likable Chap." Henry McHarg Davenport. (Sturgis and Walton Company.)
"The Auto Boys' Camp." James A. Braden.
(The Saalfield Publishing Company. Akron. (Harpers.

"A Captain at Fifteen." Gilbert Payson Coleman. (Appletons.)
"A Columbus of Space." Garrett P. Serviss.

"Tabitha at Ivy Hall." Ruth Alberta Brown.

(The Saailfield Publishing Company.) od many readers, for it seems as est than a third of the population "Elinor's Junior Hop." Grace Ethelwyn Cody.

"A History of England." Rudyard Kipling and C. R. L. Fletcher. (Doubleday, Page and Com-

Tiny Hare and His Friends." A. L. Sykes. who speak as well as to those (Little, Brown and Company.)

"Tiny Hare and (Company.)

(Little, Brown and Company.)

"Within the Sliver Moon." Madge A. Bigham. "Further Adventures of Nils." Selma Lageriof, translated by Velma Swanston Howard. (Double-his book contains some pages day, Page and Company.)

An Hour With the Fairies." Kate Douglas

EVERYONE IS READING

PRODIGAL JUDGE

THE GREATEST AMERICAN NOVEL IN MANY YEARS

Constant Lounsbery. (Moffat, Yard and Company.)
"American Socialism of the Present Day." Jessie Wallace Hughan. (John Lane Company.)
"Herself." E. B. Lowry, M. D. (Forbes and

"Scientific Mental Healing." H. Addington Bruce. (Little, Brown and Company.)
"Easy Entertaining." Caroline French Benton.
(Dana Estes and Company.)

"Francis Bacon's Own Story," J. E. Roe. The author, South Lima, N. Y.) "Talks on Poise, Health and Voice," Jennie (Gotham Press, New York.) Kimball's Commercial Arithmetic."

Kimball. (G. P. Putnam's Sons.)

"The New Composition - Rhetoric." Fred Newton Scott and Joseph Villiers Denney. (Allyn Dodd, Mead and Company Anna Katharine Green. (Dodd.

Mead and Company.)
"A Search for the Apex of America." Annie S.
Peck. (Dodd, Mead and Company.) "Statesmen of the Old South." William E. Dodd, Ph.D. (Macmillans.)
"The Conquest of Nerves." J. W. Courtney, (Macmillans)

"Poems." Madison Cawein. (Macmillans.)
"Social Reform and the Constitution." Frank Goodnow, LL.D. (Macmillans.) Making Both Ends Meet." Sue Alnsile Clark and Edith Wyatt. (Macmillans.) "Puppets." George Forbes. (Macmillans.)

"The Courage of the Commonplace."

"The Wilderness of the Upper Yukon." Charles

Works of Religion, Literature and Science Just Published.

versity Press, announce the publication of the trend of human migrations, going Debate. as far back as the earliest diffusions that Cambridge.

"Early Religious Poetry of Persia." By sity of Manchester. The table of contents spy of one of the great Powers. I indicates the scope of the volume and as one of my best novels thus far. its adaptability to the needs of either stu-"Business." Charles Edward Russell. (John II. "The Aryans and Their Language": "Talk of the Town." Mrs. John Lane. (John II. "General Description of the Avesta"; inc Company.) (III. "Avestan Verse Forms"; IV. "Early History of the Religion"; V. "Zarathush-tra"; VI. "After Zarathushtra"; VII. "The Gåthås: Literary Features"; VIII. "Con-tents of the Gåthås"; IX. "The Varbe" out that the American discussion of the subject entitled tents of the Gathas", IX. "The Yashts and has a real body of its own. Later Avesta.

Observations Upon the Natural History

III.)

M. D., D. P. H.

"Some Problems of Geodynamics." By A.

E. H. Love, M. A., D. Sc., F. R. S., formerly

fellow of St. John's Coollege, Cambridge, honorary fellow of Queen's College, Oxford; Sedleian professor of natural philosophy in the University of Oxford.

from 598 to 1009." By Arthur F. Beach, formerly fellow of All Souls College, Oxford. This volume aims at doing for the educa-tional history of England what Bishop novelist, has written in collaboration with stitutional history.

the Clergy." By G. B. Tatham, M. A., principal characters fellow of Trinity College.

"The Theory of Religious Liberty in the Reigns of Charles II. and James II." By H. F. Russell Smith, B. A., St. John's Coilege, Cambridge.

The Attitude of the Church to Some of a preface by the Bishop of Durham. Third Elementary Trigonometry." Swanwick, M. A., Fielden lecturer in mathe matics in the University of Manchester. Types of British Vegatation.

bers of the Central Committee for the Survey and Study of British Vegetation. Edited by A. G. Tansley, M. A., F. L. S., university lecturer on botany in the University of Cam-This book offers an account of bridge. British vegetation from a standpoint which ! has not hitherto been adopted in any general treatment of the plant life of this country. An endeavor is made to recognize and de- manac other words, to present a scientific classifica-tion and a balanced picture of British vegetation as it exists to-day.

(Appletons.)
"When Margaret Was a Freshman." Elizabeth
Hollister Hunt. (Moffat, Yard and Company.)
"Also All Alone." Una Macdonald. G. C. Page
"This indicate of the Year 1651. By Sir Maller Scott.
Edited with introduction, notes and glossary by A. S. Gaye, M. A., formerly scholar of This indicates and the Year 1651. By Sir Maller Scott.

Edited with introduction, notes and glossary by A. S. Gaye, M. A., formerly scholar of This indicates and glossary by A. S. Gaye, M. A., formerly scholar of the Year 1651. By Sir Maller Scott.

Edited with introduction, notes and glossary by A. S. Gaye, M. A., formerly scholar of the Year 1651. By Sir Maller Scott.

By William Shakespeare. "Coriolanus." By William Shakespeare. Edited by A. W. Verity, M. A., sometime scholar of Trinity College. The Essentials of Mental Measurement."

Principles of Biography By Sidney
Lee, Hon, D. Litt., Oxford. This volume embodies the Leslie Stephen lecture quality red in the Senate House, Cambridge, and naturalist, has added yet one more to Blaisdell and Francis K. Ball. (Little, Brown and AUTHORS AND THEIR WORK.

Reginald Wright Kauffman, whose "The House of Bondage" is now in its thirteenth printing and whose second book on white slavery, "The Girl That Goes Wrong," is to be published this winter, is to be one of the speakers at the sixth international purity congress which meets in Columbus. Ohio, in October. Other speakers at the congress include President Taft, Congressman Burnett of Alabama, James B. Rey-nolds of New York and former United States District Attorney Clifford Roe of Chicago.

Kate Douglas Wiggin gave her sixteenth annual author's reading and concert at the little church at Buxton Lower Corner Me , last week—the church of her "The Old Peabody Pew." The feature of this year's entertainment was Mrs. Wiggin's reading of brief character sketches from "A Village Watch Tower," "New Chronicles of Rebecca." "Timothy's Quest," "Rose o' th River," "Mother Carey's Chickens," and Village Stradivarius." The proceeds of the entertainment go to the furnishing of the new community house, which will shortly be dedicated on the 150th anniversary of the founding of the church. Gov. Plaisted of Maine and Mrs. Plaisted were present at the reading literary editor of the Tampa Tribune, is visiting Mrs. Minnie Moore-Wilson, the Raymond Shipman Andrews. (Charles Scribner's | Florida author, who has been spending the ons.)

"The Confessions of Artemus Quibble." Arthur Florida in October after the publication of ain. (Charles Scribner's Sons.)
"Cupid's Fair Weather Booke." Officer Herwith an appendix and additional illustrations, of Mrs. Wilson's "The Seminoles of Prof. Rodolfo Lanciani, author of "Wanderings in the Roman Campagna" and other books on Roman history and archeology, has been raised to the Senator-ship in recognition of his services in the field of archeological investigations. King The Putnams, acting as the American representatives of the Cambridge Uni-

D . Benjamin Wisner Bacon of Yale has of the following volumes:

"The Wanderings of Peoples." By A. C. University of Breslau. Dr. Bacon is the Haddon, Sc. D., F. R. S., university reader in ethnology, Cambridge. A brief survey being "The Fourth Gospel in Research and

E. Phillips Oppenhaim since his return "Links With the Past in the Plant World"
(Cambridge manuals of science and literature series). By A. C. Seward, M. A., F. R. S., professor of botany in the University of and thinks the feeling mutual, for he writes. "Early Religious Poetry of Persia." By James Hope Moulton, M. A., D. Lit. (London). Greenwood professor in the University of Manches and Professor in the I am sure Americans will like 'Havoc

Montrose J. Moses has for many years been collecting material regarding American dramatists and their work. He has now prepared for autumn publication a Nathaniel C. Fowler, Jr., whose new of Epidemic Diarrhœa." By O. H. Peters. gone into a second printing, has been book, "Practical Salesmanship," has just spending the summer at Tamworth, N. H. His, publishers have just received from Australia an order for 250 copies of "Prac-

Grace Margaret Gould, whose "The Magic the University of Oxford.
"Educational Charters and Documents the fashion department of one of the big New York magazines for women.

Stubbs's "Select Charters" did for its con-stitutional history. Martin Sabine a Japanese romance en-titled "The Lotus Lantern," in which a "Dr. John Walker and the Sufferings of geisha girl and an embassy attache are the Edmund Lester Pearson, author of "The Believing Years," was asked how he came to create the extremely lifelike youngsters around whom that story is centred.

"The answer is simple—too simple," he Grows," to be published soon by the Baker plied. "I am just fond of the out of doors & Taylor Company. the Social Problems of Town Life." By the Rev. W. Moore Ede, M. A., rector of Gateshead, honorable canon of Durham. With I could only say that I wrote it during a cross-country journey in my biplane or in some wild surroundings, seated in my epee amid the Littleneck Indians of whom I am chief! But that's too good to be true.

Prof. Henry E. Crampton of Columbia University, author of "The Doctrine of Evo-lution" (Columbia University Press), is at present on leave of absence from the university and is taking part in an expedition which has penetrated the interior of South America in search of zoological material.

Kin Hubbard, whose "Abe Martin's Alscribe the different types of plant commu- dianapolis newspaper editor, but some of nity existing in the natural vegetation of his most valuable experience was gained these islands, and to trace their relations, while he was advance agent for a "ten. so far as these have been elucidated, to twent', thirt' thriller" be forgets whether climate and soil, and to one another; in it was "Uncle Tom's Cabin" or "East

For fifteen years Clarence H. Eckler, whose "Dairy Cattle and Milk Production" tation as it exists to-day.

"Woodstock, or the Cavalier, a Tale of "Woodstock, or the Cavalier, a Tale of whose "Dairy Cattle and Milk Production "Woodstock, or the Cavalier, a Tale of whose "Dairy Cattle and Milk Production was published last week, has had charge the Year 1651." By Sir Walter Scott, of a herd of from thirty to fifty cows. Journal of the Cavalier the last ten years he has been teaching in the University of Missouri, where he is professor of dairy husbandry.

> "John Carter," the prison poet, whose 'Hard Laber and Other Poems" the Baker

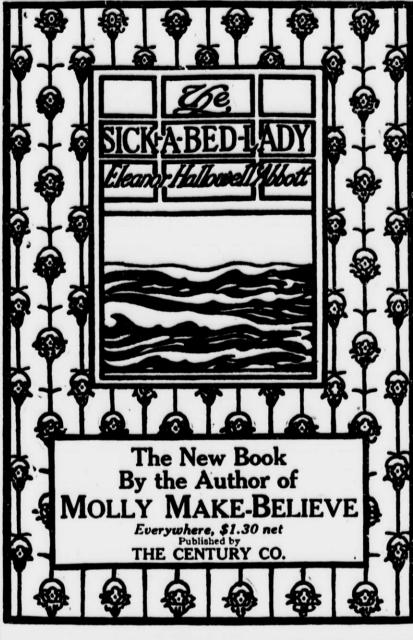

"The Essentials of Mental Measurement."

By Willim Brown, M. A. (Oxon.), D. Sc. (Lond.), lecturer on psychology, University of London, King's College.

The Mishna on Idelatry 'Aboda Lara." Idited with translation, vocabulary and notes by W. A. L. Elinselle, M. A., fellow of Christ's College. This constitutes No. 11, of the eighth volume of "Texts and Studies: Contributions to Biblical and Patristic Literature," edited by J. Armitage Robinson, D. D.

"The Patriarchs of Constantinople." By Claude Delayal Cobham, C. M. G. With introductions by the Key, Adrian Fortescue, Ph. D., D. D., and the Rev. H. T. F. Ducksworth, M. A.

"Principles of Biography." By Sidney H. Hesheth Prichard, V. P. G. S. the

Arnold Bennett's

New Novel

A book of first importance by the most eagerly awaited writer of fiction now before the public.

Hilda Lessways

through the eyes of the hero of Clayhanger. The explanation of her enigmatic conduct toward him is more interesting. more vital, more convincing than even readers of the previous book will expect.

Order of Your Bookseller. Price $1.50 Net E. P. DUTTON & COMPANY 31 West 23rd Street, New York

the girl seen so tantalizingly

Hilda Lessways is the second novel in Araold Bennett's great trilogy of the Five Towns, a study of English life in a manufacturing center. The first novel, Clayhanger, published a year ago, is called by the North American Review "the greatest novel of the past decade." It deals with the development of the hero, as the present story with that of the beroise.

Norman Duncan's been prepared by him for stage presentation and will be produced this season by David Minnesota lumberjacks, in like degree as be published in time to appear before the "Doctor Luke of the Labrador" was inopired by the work of Dr. Grenfell, neither Henry McHarg Davenport, author of an address in favor of it. Mr. Knowles has & Walton Company

Ireland, after his trip to British Columbia to get the material for his new novel, "The Singer on the Kootenay.

Rupert Hughes, who wrote "Excuse Me. and will be produced this season by David Belasco. It is said that Nance O'Neill will have the leading part. Mr. Duncan's fall book, "The Measure of a Man," is said to have been inspired by the Rev. Francis
E. Higgins, the missionary among the Robert E. Knowles, the Canadian novelist, editor of the Columbian Magazine, has just is a believer in reciprocity and has delivered associated himself with the firm of Sturgis

THE FORBIDDEN WAY "THE BOLTED BOOR."

THE NEW NOVEL BY GEORGE GIBBS

Another brilliant picture of high society life in which a big Western mine owner and his beautiful wife tread perilously near "the forbidden way." Illustrated. $1.25 net.

D. APPLETON & COMPANY, Publishers, New York

Published To-day

The Wilderness of the Upper Yukon

A Hunter's Explorations for Wild Sheep in Sub-Arctic Mountains.

By Charles Sheldon With 4 illustrations in color from raintings by Carl Rungius and 70 illustrations from photographs. $3 net : postage extra. The thrilling experiences in pursuit of the big game-sheep. caribou, moose, bear, etc., the delightful descriptions of magnificent scenery, the keen and sympathetic observation of the life of the smaller animals of the region, form a rare and valuable narrative.

Read F. Hopkinson Smith's Kennedy Square "The best novel he ever

The Confessions of Chicago Record-Herald.

Artemus Quibble Of the New York Bar

His Autobiography Revised and Edited By Arthur Train

Illustrated. $1.30 net: postpaid $1.40.

"The ingenuous and unvarnished history of Artemus Quibble, Esquire, one-time practitioner in the New York Criminal Courts. Mr. Artemus Quibble is unquestionably a rogue. It is also unquestionable that he is very human. He is a real character just as "David Harum" was ; just as was the "Self-Made Merchant" who wrote letters to "His Son."

The Courage The Commonplace

By Mary R. S. Andrews, Author of "The Perfect Tribute."

50 cents net : postpaid 55 cents. A story of true inspiration sbout a young college man who is made, not broken, by his typical but real tragedy of junior year. No Yale man sheu'd over-

NOW READY Follow this sign to all good booksellers

JOHN LANE CO., NEW YORK

LOCKE'5 GREAT

THE CLORY OF the happiest and most widely read book of the season, written by a really great novelist. Fixed Price, $1.30. Postage, 12 cente.

JOHN LANE CO., NEWYORK

The Wall Street edition of Tab LARSING SUN contains all the financial news and the stock and bond quotations to the close of the market. The closing quotations, including the "bld and asked" prices with additional news matter, are contained also in the night edition of THE EVENTS 3